

An Afternoon with David Martin

With a visit to The Scottish Colourists at The Fleming Collection

John Martin Gallery would like to extend an open invitation to an afternoon with artist David Martin on Wednesday 3rd March, prior to the opening of his forthcoming exhibition.

Commencing with a special tour of The Scottish Colourists show at The Fleming Collection at 1.10pm, followed by walk-round talk with David Martin of his exhibition at the John Martin Gallery.

The afternoon will mark the opening of David Martin's 8th solo exhibition with the John Martin, Renfrewshire-based landscape painter David, who at 87 is still painting with an incredible energy and skill. This will be a wonderful and rare opportunity to hear directly from this acclaimed Scottish artist, and hear how the inspiring and forward-thinking Colourists have impacted on his career.

A marvellous opportunity also to visit the Fleming Collection, currently celebrating its tenth anniversary, to see their superb collection of the Colourists together for the first time. Lucy Lyell will be leading the short tour of the show, discussing in particular the work of JD Fergusson, displayed alongside works by key Scottish artists Samuel John Peploe, Francis Campbell Boileau Cadell and George Leslie Hunter.

Refreshments will be served in the gallery

Visitors are invited to gather at 1pm on Wednesday 3rd March at The Fleming Collection, 13 Berkeley Street London, W1J 8DU

All are very welcome, if you would like to attend
please rsvp to: rose@jmlondon.com
